LOST!!

A ladies gold feb chain with heart shaped locket or charm. Leave same at this office and receive liberal reward.

It is with sincere sorrow that we announce the death on last Thursday evening of Mrs. M. T. Cannon the aged mother of our townsman F. M. Cannon. She was 73 years old at the time of her death and was in the enjoyment of splendid health for one of her age up to but a short time prior to her demise. She was a woman of strong character and sterling worth and our whole community will greatly miss her.

It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of Ethel Stricklin the beautiful little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stricklin which occurred last Friday night at this place. She was a winning, sunny child of three years and a few months, the light and joy of the household. To the bereaved parents we tender sincere condolence.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
God in his wisdom has recalled,
The boon his love had given,
And though the body moulders here
The soul is safe in heaven.

BOOM!

CENTER SHOT! ALL OVER AND NOBODY HURT, NEITHER THE BUYER NOR SELLER.

The initial sale of Lawrenceburg Land Co. was everything that could have been desired, and even exceeded the expectations of those most concerned. The day was immensely hot and doubtless the state of the weather prevented a larger attendance of buyers. It was estimated that there were from twelve hundred to fifteen hundred people in the city drawn hither by the extensively advertised sale of choice town property to take place that day. Generous preparations for a good dinner insured a good square meal to everybody and after it had been disposed of the inimitable Joe Harris commenced the sale of some as fine town property as has ever been offered in the south. The first struck down was three lots at eight dollars a front foot and then all the way down at different figures until it reached $2.40. Only a limited number of lots was sold as the Company only desired an improvement fund. Another sale will follow at some time in the future of which the public will have notice. We have at space to mention the incidents of the day further than to allude to the fact that Hon. Jere Baxter was here and made a speech as was also Col. N. N. Cox, of Franklin, and many other distinguished persons from the surrounding towns and cities. Barring the heat the day was passed quite pleasantly and with satisfaction to all. We congratulate the Land company on its splendid management and business like methods which have won for it the confidence of the public. Its officers are men of character and integrity and they will leave no stone unturned to put the company before the business and investing world as a solid concern worthy of all confidence. They desire and should have the hearty cooperation of every citizen and let us remember that this is but the beginning and that the future of Lawrenceburg lies in a great measure in their hands. Several private sales were effected after the auction of which more anon.
